

Reading Specialist Opportunity

+ Role Title and Overview

Reading specialist and promoter of structured literacy for students with dyslexia. This is a part time independent contractor role

+ Essential Information

- Work one to one with dyslexic students both in person and virtually
- Create awareness about structured literacy for struggling readers
- Resource development
- Support with administrative tasks

+ Requirements

- Bachelors degree in any field
- 2 years experience in working with children
- Proficiency with computers
- Owns a computer with access to WiFi
- Up-to-date DBS
- Based in the UK- preferably Leicestershire
- Permitted to work in the UK
- Flexible work schedule

+ Benefits

- Opportunity to work with students globally
- Orton Gillingham Approach training opportunities available
- Financial and career growth opportunities

+ Working Conditions

Working Conditions	Details
Hours of work	Flexible working hours based on client and tutor agreement. Typically 4 to 10 hours a week.
Pay	Beginning pay £12 per session or hour *Rising pay opportunities available
Work environment	Working from home for virtual support. Possibility of working at client's homes or schools or tutor's home based on prior agreement
Travel requirements	Upon agreement, if required the tutor to travel to the student's home. Travel will not be across counties.

+ Agreements

- Independent Contractor agreement
- Training agreement

+ Conditions

- Minimum 3 month trial before training
- Monthly review and support meetings

+ Contact information

- Send your CV to nazia@inclusivity.education